In the matter of

The People (represented by David Laity)

(Plaintiffs)

v

Norman Roy Blackwell (Lord, Non-Executive Chairman Lloyds)

Rachel Thomson (Business Manager, Lloyds)

Sarah Eileen Green (Mortgages 1 Limited Director)

Sarah Watley (Moore Blatch Solicitors Partner)

Mark King (Andrew Wilson & Co)

(Defendants)

Dated: 21st September 2019

As part of the Plaintiffs case, the following positions were accepted in evidence and established as facts in law.

1. A Common Law Court Birth Certificate for David Laity had been obtained, confirming his standing as a living man, under the jurisdiction of the Common Law Court.
2. A Business Ownership Certificate for the Fictitious Name (MR DAVID LAITY) had been obtained by David Laity (the living man), confirming not only his ownership but that it fell under the jurisdiction of the Common Law Court.

The Defendants having been served with a Court Summons, Court Information and a copy of the case against them (Statement of Claim), failed to appear. The Defendants failed to submit a written defence against the claims made against them and failed to take up the opportunity of a Pre-Trial Conference to resolve matters before the hearing.

In relation to the Plaintiffs case, David Laity presented his Statement of Claim on behalf of the people, called on two witnesses and gave evidence confirming various crimes committed within the mortgage industry and against living men and women.

During the trial, David Laity presented the case for the Plaintiffs and submitted his request for the following:

1. A guilty verdict against the Defendants, for various crimes that they had committed against the people.
2. An order to remove the Defendants from their current positions.
3. If the above was granted, a request was made that the jury should consider any financial implications that may be relevant.
4. An order to prevent the Defendants from holding similar positions in the future.
5. An order to confirm that all mortgages within the UK are void.
6. An order to prevent the evictions of living men and women from their property within the UK.

In relation to the Statement of Claim, witness statements and the supporting evidence presented this day by David Laity on behalf of the Plaintiffs, we the Jury, consisting of twelve reasonably minded men and women and having considered all the evidence presented at this hearing, issue the following orders:

1. We the Jury issue an order which confirms that the Defendants have acted unlawfully and criminally in relation to the following and are guilty of committing crimes against the people:

An Abuse of Position

The Defendants, by their failure to obtain consent, authority and/or jurisdiction have committed crimes against the people and have used their positions and statutory legislation to target, innocent living men and living women.

Note:

The Declaration of the Common Law Court

'Borrowing from the declaration of our ancestors, made in Arbroath in 1320, we declare that, as long as but a hundred of us remain alive, never will we on any conditions be brought under mandatory rule by legal statute.'

Common Law Court - Lawful Notice

'No living men or women who have confirmed their standing under the jurisdiction of the Common Law Court will be subjected to statutory control, until such time that the state can confirm that they have established a superior claim to that of the Common Law Court.

The use of Common Law Court identification confirms that living men and women stand under the jurisdiction of the Common Law Court. It therefore becomes a criminal offence to criminally coerce the individual identified into the statutory system and a crime against the people. Anyone responsible for criminal coercion will be held personally liable in their private capacity and will have to answer to the people.'

The Universal Declaration of Human Rights 1948

Article 12

No one shall be subjected to arbitrary interference with his privacy, family, home or correspondence, nor to attacks upon his honour and reputation. Everyone has the right to the protection of the law against such interference or attacks.

Criminal Coercion

The Defendants are guilty of the unlawful act of attempting to force living men and living women to do something, by way of accepting a legal fiction which they wanted to attach to them.

The legal fictions (Fictitious Names) are owned by the living men and living women and this has been established as a FACT IN LAW. Confirmation of this fact has already been established during the following trial in Paisley Sheriff Court (Case Ref. PA18004245) and at a previous Common Law Court hearing.

Fraud

The deliberate deception used to obtain an unlawful gain, this is applicable to the use of the legal fiction and the authority and jurisdiction which had been taken, but not established by the Defendants.

The Universal Declaration of Human Rights 1948

Article 4

No one shall be held in slavery or servitude; slavery and the slave trade shall be prohibited in all their forms. (this would include the use of the legal fiction).

Common Law Courts

Failure to accept the positions of a living man and living woman

The Defendants are guilty of failing to acknowledge the positions of living men and living women. These men and women have confirmed their standing by recording their births with the Common Law Court and therefore stand under the authority and jurisdiction of the Common Law Court.

Note:

The Declaration of the Common Law Court

'For many years now, men and women have been subjected to criminal and fraudulent behaviour by the state's actions which have been imposed upon us, against our will, by both criminal coercion and legal deception. Fear and fiction have thus combined to bind us into slavery.'

The Universal Declaration of Human Rights 1948

Article 7

All are equal before the law and are entitled without any discrimination to equal protection of the law. All are entitled to equal protection against any discrimination in violation of this Declaration and against any incitement to such discrimination.

Article 10

Everyone is entitled in full equality to a fair and public hearing by an independent and impartial tribunal, in the determination of his rights and obligations and of any criminal charge against him.

Article 20

No one may be compelled to belong to an association.

Refusal to Accept Common Law Court Deeds

The Defendants are guilty of failing to accept lawfully issued deeds. Common Law Court deeds are issued by the people and carry with them, the authority of the people. In refusing to accept these deeds, the Defendants are also refusing to accept the authority and jurisdiction of the Common Law Court.

Common Law Courts

Great Britain & International

The refusal to accept these deeds is a crime against the people, these lawful deeds have a superior standing to that of statutory documents and cannot be ignored.

The positions adopted by the Defendants also confirm that they are using the statutory system to hide behind and for protection.

Refusal to comply with common law

Under common law, Defendants are accountable for their own behaviour as living men and living women and for the crimes that they commit against other living men and living women.

The Defendants cannot hide behind the statutory system while being paid by the people.

Refusal to comply with statutory legislation

The Defendants are guilty of Malfeasance.

The Defendants work for corporations that have no authority over living men and living woman.

In proceeding with their actions, the Defendants have failed to identify the parties involved, living men/women or legal fictions. The Defendants have NO CONSENT, AUTHORITY OR JURISDICTION and are causing harm, loss and injury.

Note:

The Universal Declaration of Human Rights 1948

Article 18

Common Law Courts
