Unlawful Prosecution, Search, Detention, Damage, Kidnapping and Violation of Diplomatic Immunity

Jo Farral,

We the People, represented by John Smith, respectfully submit this information to address the unlawful actions taken by Police Scotland and other statutory authorities during events on Monday, 10 February 2025, which involve serious violations of both domestic and international law.

1. Background of Incident:

On 10 February 2025, Police Scotland, consisting of approximately twenty-four (24) officers, attended two premises:

- CLC Embassy, Cruinn House, 1 Wurzburg Court, Dundee, DD2 1FB
- Diplomat's Home address in Dundee

These premises were entered by the officers under the belief they possessed a lawful search warrant. However, no copy of the warrant was given to me at the time of the search, and I was not provided an opportunity to inspect it at that time as my concern was for my partner who is disabled and has a serious lung condition and a life-threatening condition. Upon later request at the police station, I was refused a copy of all paperwork and the recorded interview that I gave.

2. Unlawful Conduct:

- The police officers forcibly entered both premises without providing sufficient legal documentation or proof of an alleged warrant.
- The authorities involved, unlawfully detained and prosecuted the accused, a living man and a CLC Diplomat who was not the intended target of the search or prosecution. The named individual was a legal person, but I was unlawfully arrested and treated as the wrong person for prosecution.
- There was a mistaken identity regarding the accused as even his date of birth confirmed this.
- The police officers engaged in threatening behaviour, and I believe that I was unlawfully detained in a manner that constitutes kidnapping.

3. Creation of the Common Law Court Diplomats and the CLC Embassy:

On 17 October 2021, during a lawfully convened Common Law Court, a jury of twelve reasonably minded living men and women issued a court order to establish a diplomatic service for living men and women, throughout the world. This court order led to the creation of CLC Diplomats and the CLC Embassy, which operates to engage with statutory authorities in matters concerning the lawful rights and protections of living men and living women.

Since its creation, the CLC Diplomats and CLC Embassy have engaged with numerous statutory authorities worldwide. The willingness of these authorities to correspond and engage with us at the CLC Embassy has confirmed the recognition, jurisdiction and acceptance of our position, including but not limited to the Scottish Government, Scottish Courts and Tribunals Service, and HMCTS (Her Majesty's Courts and Tribunals Service). Notably, both the Scottish Courts and Tribunals Service and HMCTS have recently accepted the Common Law Court Diplomatic Passport as a valid document that complies with their legal legislative requirements.

4. Violations of Diplomatic Immunity and International Law:

In addition to the unlawful actions outlined above, the conduct of Police Scotland constitutes a violation of international law, specifically the Vienna Convention on Diplomatic Relations (1961), which the United Kingdom is a party to. Relevant articles of the Convention and the Diplomatic Privileges Act 1964 must be considered:

Vienna Convention on Diplomatic Relations (1961)

- Article 22 of the Vienna Convention states that the premises of an embassy are inviolable, and the host state is responsible for protecting them from intrusion or damage. The actions of Police Scotland on 10 February 2025, who unlawfully entered the CLC Embassy, caused damage to property, stole private property, and opened sealed mail, directly violate these protections.

- Article 29 of the Vienna Convention provides that diplomats enjoy personal immunity from arrest or detention and freedom from local jurisdiction, except under certain circumstances. I, as a CLC Diplomat, was unlawfully detained and prosecuted without the proper application of these protections.
- Article 30 further protects the diplomat's private residence from intrusion or damage by the authorities of the host country. The actions of Police Scotland, entering my premises and damaging property, are in direct contravention of this protection.

Diplomatic Privileges Act 1964

- This act enforces these protections within the United Kingdom, which means that these unlawful acts by Scottish Police are in direct violation of both international law and the domestic legal framework.

5. Requests for Immediate Actions:

Given the severe violations of diplomatic immunity and protections under both international and domestic law, I request the following actions:

1. Full Explanation of Unlawful Entry – A detailed explanation of the circumstances surrounding the unlawful entry by Police Scotland into the CLC Embassy premises, including the authority, jurisdiction and justification for entering without providing the necessary search warrant.
2. Damage Assessment and Rectification – A full, detailed account of the damage caused during the unlawful entry, including an assessment of the extent of the damage and the steps being taken to repair and rectify the situation. Additionally, I request that compensation be provided for the damage caused in accordance with international norms, as stipulated by the Vienna Convention.
3. Prevention of Future Violations – Immediate steps to ensure that such unlawful actions do not occur again, including measures to guarantee the inviolability of Embassy premises and that the personal immunity of diplomats are respected and upheld by Police Scotland and other statutory authorities.
4. Return of Stolen Property – The immediate return of all property, unlawfully taken from the CLC Embassy, including but not limited to, documents, equipment, and personal property.

CLC Embassy

5. Compensation – Compensation for the damage caused to Embassy property should be provided in a timely manner, in alignment with international diplomatic standards and the Vienna Convention on Diplomatic Relations.

6. Further Diplomatic Measures:

Failure to resolve this issue promptly may necessitate further diplomatic measures, including but not limited to a formal protest through the appropriate channels, as well as the involvement of the Scottish Government. I trust that this matter will be treated with the utmost seriousness and urgency.

7. Request:

In addition to the above, I request immediate action to address the following:

1. Return of Property – The immediate return of all property unlawfully seized from the two properties listed, during the police search.
2. Copy of Search Warrant(s) – I require a copy of the alleged search warrant(s) that were purportedly used to justify the entry into the premises, along with any associated documents.
3. List of Police Officers – Provide a full list of names, badge numbers, and other details of the officers who attended and conducted the search.
4. Police Interview Records – Provide a copy of the statement, recorded during my police interview, which was not given to me when asked for at the time of the interview.
5. Video Footage and Evidence – Provide copies of all video footage taken by the attending officers, including their body cameras during the search, as well as any evidence that shows the police damaged the premises, during the course of the search.
6. Insurance Details – I was informed that the damage caused during the search would be repaired at the cost of Police Scotland. I request a copy of the insurance details for Police Scotland to initiate a claim for the damage caused.

8. Common Law Court Order:

In relation to the so called extortion, the money pursued was due to the refusal of the named individuals to comply with a lawfully issued court order. The concerned individuals' and the authorities' failure to respect this order constitutes further unlawful actions, such as failure to comply with, hinder or obstruct, which confirms that the parties involved are in contempt of court.

CLC Embassy

In light of the above, I respectfully request your assistance in this matter to ensure that the appropriate action is taken against the named individuals. The return of unlawfully seized property, and the required copies of all evidence, paperwork and statements in this matter should be forwarded as a matter of urgency.

Please respond within seven (7) days with the necessary information required and an explanation to confirm how this matter will be resolved.
